

Drawing with, on and to music

“Concentration and body tension-

Hearing sounds and rhythms, with the ear; perceiving them, with the whole body;
with the hand and arm, transferred on the paper.”

The title of the first work which was created in 2018 on drawing with, on and after music is Life and Death. An artist book and a box were made, in which the drawing and the artist book are stored.

The paper for the drawing consists of single, assembled pieces of paper (of bamboo), which were then individually photographed, printed out and bound into a 74-page book after the drawing was completed. The book also contains a kind of time log in which it was recorded how long each piece had been drawn on.

The Mätthäus Passion by Johann Sebastian Bach stood for death (Jesus' way of crucifixion), the other pieces for life, each drawn in turn.

Life and death / Music, that was drawn on:

Matthäus-Passion, BWV 244, Complete, J. S. Bach

The four seasons, Antonio Vivaldi

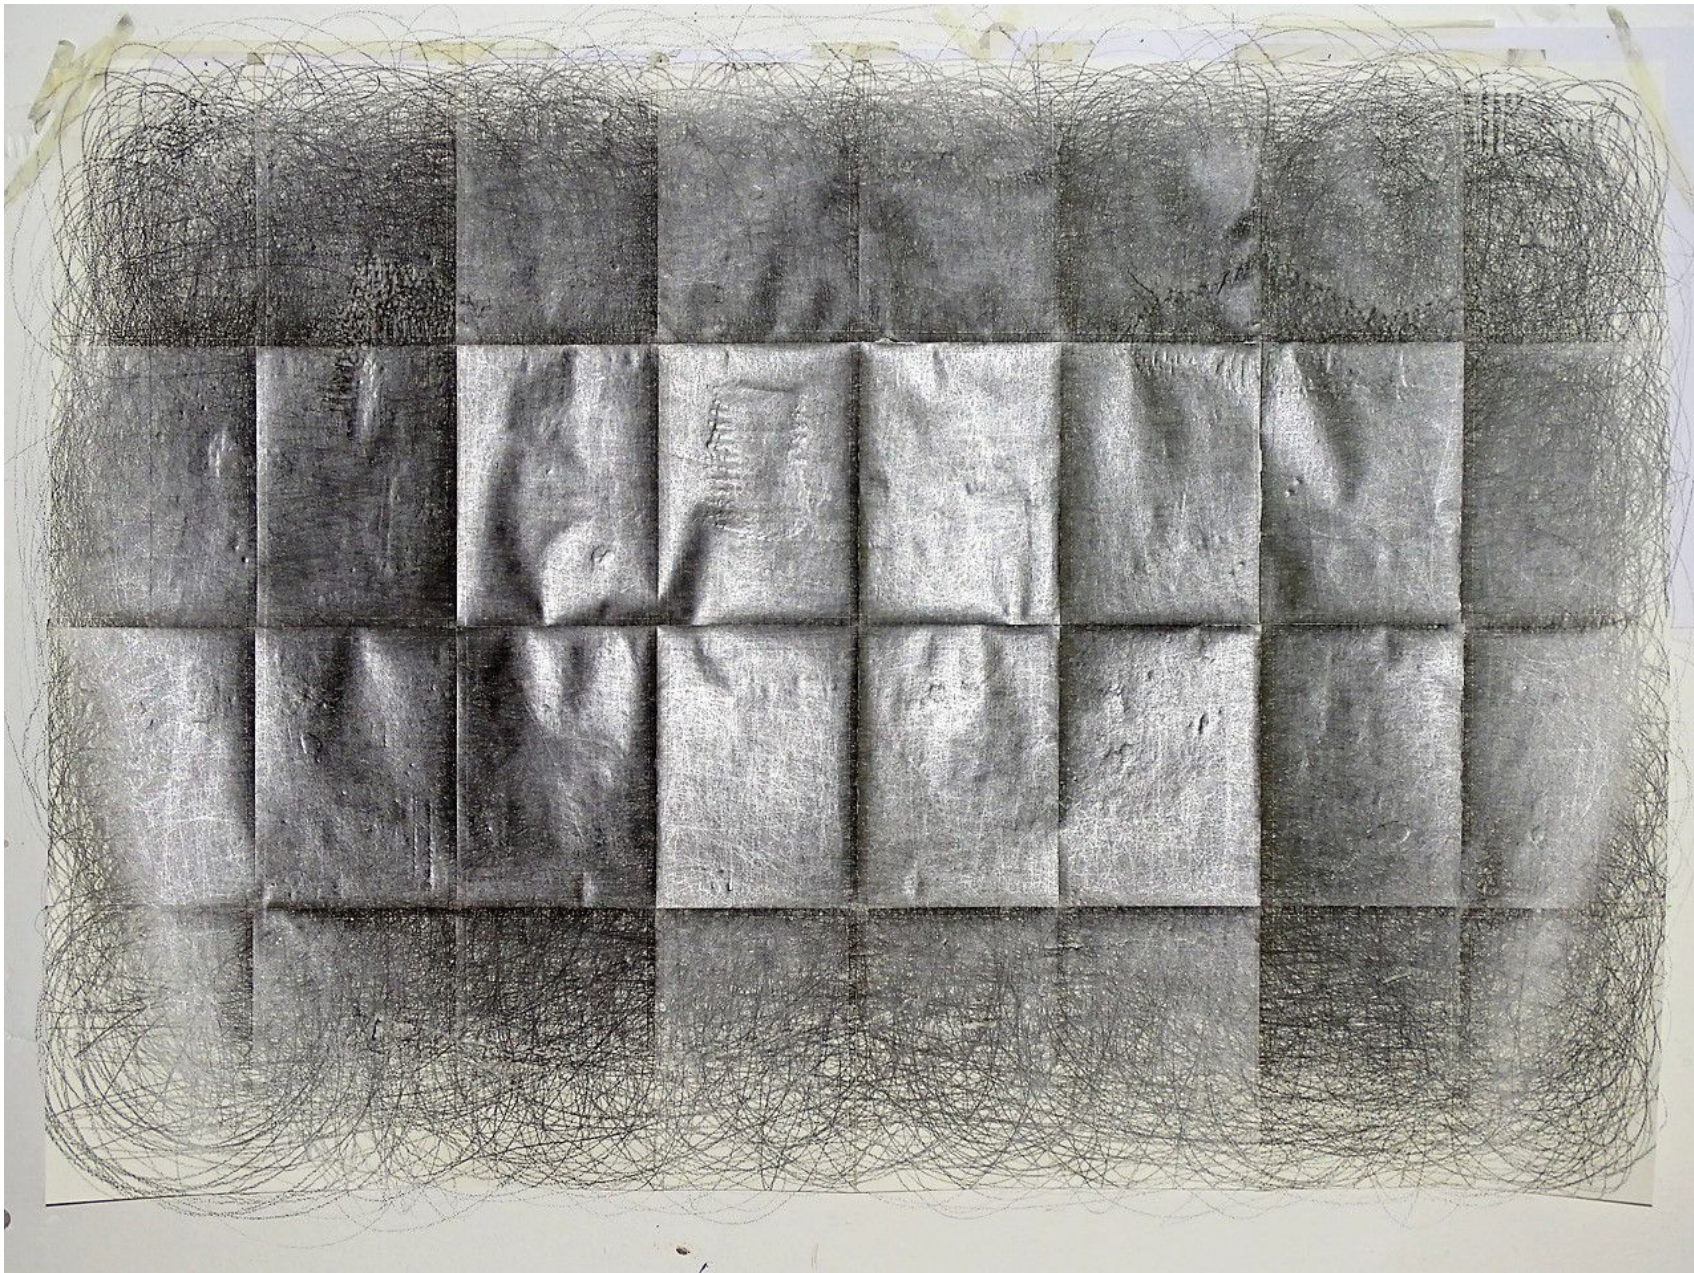

L'Ange Aveugle, Dhafer Youssef Quartet

Sura Live, Dhafer Youssef

Water, Georg Friedrich Händel

Gloria in excelsis Deo, J. S. Bach

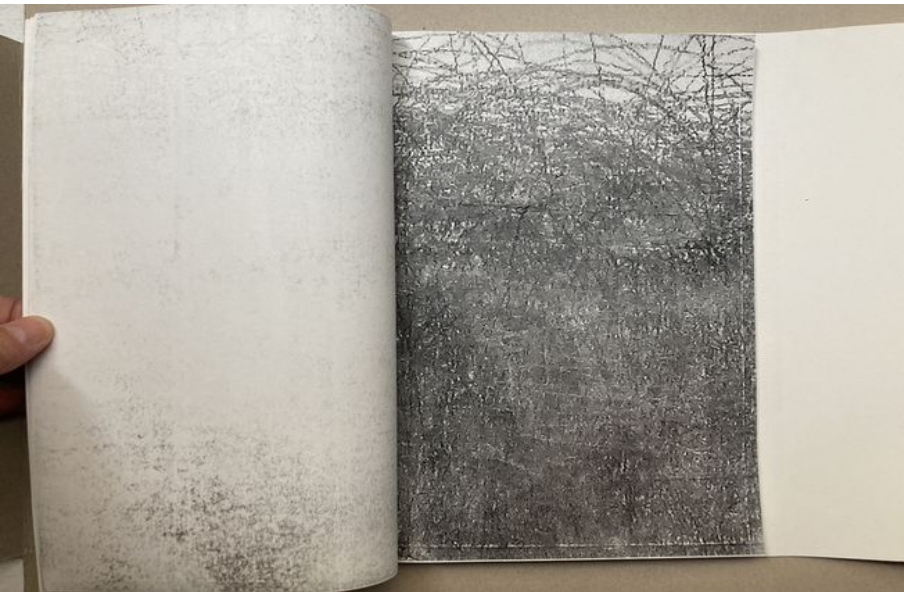

Hymn of the Cherubim, Piotr Illitch Tchaichovsky

Drawing Life and Death, Graphite on paper, 46 x 62 inches
